The Auctioneers take no responsibility for the information given by vendors about the health status of their birds or animals.

All descriptions and details of entries are supplied by the vendors and accepted by the Auctioneers as being correct. The Auctioneers will not accept liability for incorrect information being given.

All reserve prices must be notified to the auctioneers in writing before 9 am prompt on morning of the sale.

Any amendments to entered lots / Not forward lots must be with the auctioneers by 12 Noon, WEDNESDAY 1st August 2018. After this time, there will be an administration charge of £3 levied for each lot altered.

Purchasers must satisfy themselves to the breeds, sex, condition and quantities in any lot before making a purchase.

No substitute lots will be accepted.

All birds and animals are to be removed from the Mart in boxes or crates.

We recommend that vendors provide their birds and animals with containers of water.

Please Note

In the interest of animal welfare, a veterinary surgeon from Scott Mitchell & Associates will be patrolling the premises on the morning of the sale to carry out 'Spot Checks' of birds and animals.

Any lot deemed unfit for sale will be withdrawn at the auctioneer's discretion and all entry fees will be forfeit.

In any dispute the Auctioneers decision is final.

SPECIAL NOTICE

'The auctioneers take every care to provide accurate descriptions of lots in the catalogue and at the time of sale however it is the vendors responsibility to ensure all such information is correct. Purchasers must satisfy themselves as to the description and quality of each lot prior to the sale as the auctioneers will not be held responsible for incorrect description of lots, faulty goods or infertile hatching eggs'.
